October 15, 1955 - October 12, 2015

John Robert “Ripper” James
Former Lowell resident, 59

John Robert “Ripper” James, died unexpectedly on October 12, 2015 in Marathon, Florida, due to an industrial accident.
John was born in Lowell on October 15, 1955, the loving son of Mary James who survives him and the late Osery James. John is survived by his sister Debra McGrade and her husband Michael of Hudson, NH; his brother-in-law Anthony Pizzo Sr. of Winchester, MA; and his nieces, Christine Spillane and her husband Jonathen, Kelly McGrade, and Sarah McGrade; a nephew Anthony Pizzo Jr. John was the brother of the late Nancy James Pizzo.
John was a carpet installer in the Greater Lowell area for most of his life. He was most happy just sitting by a campfire with friends and family listening to oldies music especially Elvis Presley. After a vacation in the Florida Keys, John decided to retire there and has been living there for the last few years. He was immeasurably kind and giving and will be missed by all.
