

Mr. Christopher D. Toledo

April 11, 1983 - June 20, 2013

Christopher D. Toledo
Beloved Son and Brother

WEST ROXBURY—Christopher D. “Chris” Toledo, the beloved son of Luis and Susan (Hand) Toledo, passed away unexpectedly at his home on June 20, 2013. He was 30 years old.

Christopher was born in Lowell on April 11, 1983 and was educated in the Lowell Schools before moving with his family to Milford, NH. He completed his schooling there and was a graduate of Milford High School. Chris had been employed in the Construction Industry with his uncle.

Chris was a great kid. He was smart, kind, funny, and always smiling. He had an outgoing personality and his presence would light up any room. Chris was also a very giving person. He would do anything for anyone and he had a heart of gold.

A talented artist, Chris also enjoyed cars and attending antique car shows.

In addition to his parents, Chris is survived by his seven siblings,

Kelly Toledo of West Roxbury, Luis Toledo, Jr. of Wilton, NH, Jennifer Toledo of Washington State, Renee Toledo of Mason, NH, Olga Toledo of Milford, NH, Cory Toledo of Lunenburg, and Susan Toledo of Lunenburg; his paternal grandparents, Olga and Jose Toledo of Lowell. Chris also leaves a large extended family of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“ Dear Chris,

We weren't close cousins as of late, but I do remember all the good times we had. The summers I would spend up at your parent's house when we were younger, all the jokes and pranks and good times we shared as family. They feel like so long ago now... I miss you. I wish I could have said goodbye, or I love you one more time. You'll always be in my heart, right next to where Neca holds a special place. I know you're not suffering anymore, and I know you're watching over your mom and dad and the family. We all love you. Say hello to Neca, we love you both. We'll see each other again.

You're in a better place now. I love you Coz.

Love,

Michelle
