“ I'm so grateful to have been a part of your life, to know and love you and your family, you shared your love of being a mother, an aunt, a sister, of plants, of reading, of cooking, and of your dogs with me. I am a better person because of these experiences, although I never remember beating you at a game of gin, I was always up for the challenge and the heckling I was sure to receive. I will also always call my lasagna "Diane's lasagna" and will remember you with fondness and love. Rest in Peace Diane.

My deepest and most sincere condolences and love go out to your family.
