“ Mom, I am so sorry that you lost the love of your life. I want to thank you so much for bringing my dad into my life and at the end bringing him back to life to so I had a chance to be with him during his last days. I have the most amazing parents and I am glad that I was able to see how wonderful it was it before losing them to the hereafter. Thank you

Dad, We had some fun times during our rides to the doctor's, then McDonald's afterward. Going for a ride to use up sometime in between visits, singing the Dixie Chick Songs and just talking. I am so thankful for the time that mom gave us by staying home and letting me take you to the visits. I can have the wonderful memory of you kissing me and telling me you love on Thursday 4/12/12, I will forever hold that memory, I wish I could have foreseen your passing for I crave for one more day; I love you dad, you will be surely missed and know that I will be taking care of mom down here, you take care of her from up there and please help me.

With much devotion and eternal love, your daughter, Ruthi
