ESTEBAN BENITEZ

October 1, 1963 – August 2, 2014

Esteban Benitez was born October 1, 1963. He was a long term resident of Lowell MA. He attended Lowell High School during his younger years. Esteban was a man who would give the world to anyone and everyone. All who knew him knew he was the biggest sweetheart. He knew just how to aggravate some, but most importantly, knew how to make all smile. He would laugh at a joke even if he didn't know what you were saying. When it came to meal time he could never keep a clean t-shirt. Never failed to say hi or bye and constantly reminded his love for everyone. His infamous words were "what's up dog" and "what's up sweetheart." Esteban loved his sports and there was no going against him. He loved his Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees were his biggest rivalry. He was a man with huge spirit but an even bigger heart. It's unfortunate that we must say good bye so soon but he will always be in our hearts. Esteban is survived by his son Steven Fader; mother Carmen Benitez and step-father Wilfredo Rivera; biological father Pedro Benitez; sisters Josephine Benitez-Trinidad and her husband Sandro Trinidad; sister Carmen Benitez; brothers Pedro Benitez; brother Jose Benitez and his wife Pamela Benitez; and a numerous amount of loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends. May you now be our angel! We love you!
