

Mr. James A. Polcari

September 10, 1960 - November 26, 2016

James A. Polcari

Loving Husband, Father, Son, Brother, and Uncle

Athlete, Humanitarian, and Child Advocate

LOWELL—James Anthony “Jim” Polcari, the beloved husband of Mealea Chan-Polcari and a Belvidere resident, passes away on Saturday, November 26, 2016, following a valiant fight with lung cancer. He was the devoted father of Ethan Chan-Polcari, an eighth grade student and Connie Chan-Polcari, a seventh grade student at the Immaculate Conception School.

James was born in Somerville on September 10, 1960, a son of Anthony Polcari of Melrose who survives him, and the late Claire (McCarthy) Polcari. He attended Melrose Schools and was a graduate of Melrose High School, Class of 1978. Jim went on to graduate from the University of Lowell '82 with a degree in Engineering. He later received a J.D. Degree from the New England School of Law. Jim also studied at the Paulist Bros. Seminary in Washington, DC for two years.

Jim was passionate about his career as an attorney specializing in Special Education Advocacy and Juvenile Law. For Jim, it was a labor of love being a voice for those who didn't have one.

Jim was a real life “Super Hero”, athlete, and human being. He brought passion into everything he loved, especially in his family, and also running, rowing, tennis, sailing, hiking, and skiing. His enthusiasm for life was marked by a deep concern for others, especially those who couldn't advocate or speak for themselves.

Jim was an awesome Dad. He was devoted to Ethan and Connie and was always there for them. He was a big part of their life as a Baseball Coach at Shedd Park, a Hockey Coach for Lowell Youth Hockey, and Connie's biggest fan with her swimming, basketball games and volleyball games. They also enjoyed riding their bikes along the Merrimack River. He was the one that always took them to Church.

The warmth and generosity of all those who knew him and loved him, over the course of his life, sustained him in his final days. Their support is a testimony to his enduring nature and his family will be forever grateful to so many devoted friends.

Jim is survived by his wife Mealea, his son Ethan, and his daughter Connie, all of Lowell; his father Anthony Polcari of Melrose; his sisters, Linda Biles of Andover, Donna Polcari on N. Andover, and Carol Dickerson and her husband Dr. James Dickerson of Windham, NH; his brother, John Polcari of Bradford; his sisters-in-law and brother-in-law Chakry, Matinal, Matinol, Bopha, and Greg; thirteen nieces and nephews, Matt, Aaron, Grace, Kaleigh, Erin, Caroline, Olivia, Matthew, Julianne, Jennifer, Jaclyn, Joseph, and Anthony. Jim also leaves so many dear friends from every facet of his life, far too many to mention by name, but know how special you were to him and how much he valued your friendship. Jim's family would like to thank the Doctors, Nurses, and Medical Staff at Dana Farber Cancer Center in Boston, Lowell General Hospital's Cancer Center, and Dr. Mark Romanowsky for the care and compassion they showed him throughout his illness. They will be forever grateful.

Comments

“ I am stunned by the news of Jim's passing. In the Orthodox Church we believe he is now in a place where there is no pain, nor sorrow, nor suffering, but life everlasting. I will always remember his smile, generosity, and love for his family. His impact is felt everywhere.

“ Such a loss to the children of the Commonwealth , it was always a pleasure to work with Jim

JuLee Colella - November 29, 2016 at 11:14 PM

“ Jim will be missed by more people than we know. I was always so happy to know he was on one of my cases. I learned so much from him. We also shared laughter and interesting conversations from silly things to deep philosophical and religious issues. My prayers are with his family.

“ We are truly blessed to have met Jim. he was a great coach and an even greater person. I will never forget the email he sent me at the end of the hockey season last year, it definitely showed the love and compassion he had for the boys. He will never be forgotten and forever missed. All of our love and prayers are with you all..

“ Growing up with the Polcari's was always a lot of fun and Jimmy was the nicest kid you would ever meet. Never forget all the laughs we had - especially watching the 3 Stooges in the family room after school and Jimmy laughing the loudest of anyone! The awesome man he grew into was the same little boy that ran around Cricklewood Lane!

Our deepest sympathy to everyone. Bill & Maureen (Lynch) Noyes

“ My deepest sympathies to Jim's family and friends, Jim was the attorney who helped my family to get an appropriate school placement for my son. He was the kindest man during a very difficult time. We stayed in contact so I could update him on my child's progress..he absolutely adored his family.i talked to him a few months ago.He was very ill but still his first concern was his family . He deeply cared about his clients and friends.I will miss him very much.i feel very lucky to have known him.

“ "Jimmy P!" was the name called out with joy and recognition throughout Riverside Boathouse in Cambridge. Jim brought his energy, warmth, and generosity to every member of the club, always. He is sadly missed by many members who remember his smile, his laugh, his genuine care for each person. I am sure I speak for them all: our hearts go out to his family and friends.
