

Mr. Khamphone Xayasane

January 1, 1954 - May 14, 2018

OBITUARY

Khamphone Xayasane

LOWELL—Khamphone Xayasane, 64, passed away at his Lowell home on Monday, May 14, 2018. He was the beloved husband of Khan (Chounlamountry) Xayasane.

Khamphone was born in Vientiane, Laos on January 1, 1954, a beloved son of the late Ung Tong Hee and Liame Xayasane. He came to the United States in December of 1979 and had made his home in Lowell, Massachusetts. Khamphone was educated in Laos, receiving a degree in Accounting and English. Upon coming to the United States, he went on to get a degree from UMass Lowell, and taught Math at Lowell High School.

Khamphone also worked at Wang and Digital Computers for 18 years.

Khamphone was well loved within the Lao community. He spent four terms as president of the Lao-American League of Lowell, and spent every moment he could helping his community. He was an intelligent and well respected man, who cared deeply about the lives of his family, friends, and students.

In addition to his beloved wife Khan, Khamphone leaves behind his two sons, Kora Xayasane and Kara Xayasane; three daughters, Chithavong Xayasane, Kittavong Xayasane, Phommavong Xayasane; six grandchildren, Kobe Xayasane, Tiki Xayasane, Koreayni Xayasane, Violet Xayasane, Ryan Som and Simon Xayasane; one brother Somsack Xayasane and two sisters, Domsack Xayasane and Thongsavan Xayasane.
