

Mrs. Maria H. Cunha

July 26, 1945 - February 17, 2012

Maria H. Cunha

Loving Wife, Mother, and Grandmother

St. Anthony's Parishioner

LOWELL—Maria H. (Silva) Cunha, 66, the beloved wife of Agostinho Cunha, passed away on Friday morning, February 17, 2012 at the Northwood Nursing Home.

Maria was born in Graciosa, Azores, Portugal on July 26, 1945, a daughter of the late Francisco and Angelina P. (Silva) Machado. Maria received her education in Graciosa. Maria came to the United States in 1970 and settled in Lowell. She was a parishioner of St. Anthony's Church. For many years, Maria worked as an assembler at Old Mother Hubbard Co. in Lowell.

Maria enjoyed cooking and could often be found in the kitchen preparing traditional Portuguese food for family and friends. She also enjoyed knitting and traveling, especially back to the Azores.

Maria loved spending time with her family.

Mrs. Cunha is survived by her husband Agostinho of Lowell; a son, Steven Cunha of Lowell; a step-daughter, Diane Cunha of Woburn; five grandchildren, Steven Cunha of Lowell, Nick Smart, Melissa Smart, Amanda Shirley, and Robert Hickey; a sister, Aldina Santos and her husband Sarafin of Portugal; also three nephews, cousins and friends.
