Obituary

Sherri Lynne McNamara

Loving Mother and Grandmother

DRACUT—Sherri Lynne (Dupuis) McNamara, 57, a Dracut resident and the wife of the late Paul D. McNamara, passed away unexpectedly on Monday at her home. Sherri was born in Lowell on October 3, 1953, a daughter of John and Jeanne (Treadwell) Dupuis. She was educated in Lowell schools and was a graduate of Lowell High School.

Sherri was previously employed as an office manager at Saints Medical Center-Woman's Health. She had also worked as a bookkeeper/payroll manager for the Purity Supreme Supermarket Chain's warehouse in Billerica.

Sherri loved working with people. While at Saints, every patient that came into contact with Sherri loved her.

Sherri also loved animals. She had a fondness for ferrell cats, and was a huge advocate for animal protection. She would take in and care for any creature that needed food, shelter, nurturing, and TLC. Sherri was at home in nature. She enjoyed being outside, taking in all that the world had to offer.

A common thread in Sherri's personality was her love of all living things. She enjoyed giving of herself and helping others.

She was a loving and caring wife, mother, step mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend.

In her leisure time, Sherri enjoyed shopping and sewing. Her sewing abilities enabled her to make clothing which she was proud to wear.

Most important to Sherri was the time she was able to spend with her family. The famous Fourth of July cookouts and their great memories stand out in everybody's mind.

Sherri is survived by her son, Paul B. McNamara and his girlfriend, Tiphany Andrews of Dracut; her step daughter, Sunnie Landry of Greenfield, NH; five grandchildren, Paul B.

McNamara, Jr., Kylee A. McNamara, Selena Landry, Phoenix Landry, and Brielle Landry; two brothers, Kevin Dupuis and his companion Karen Welcome of Chelmsford, and John Dupuis and his wife Jody of Chelmsford; several nieces and nephews including Jesse McNamara and his wife Kaila and their son, Connor McNamara all of Lowell; her cousin and best friend, Donna Shaw of Dracut; and many dear friends.

“ I’m incredibly sad to hear Sherri has passed away. Sherri, you were one of the nicest people I’ve even known, I’ll miss you so much. Sherri and her husband Paul were absolutely awesome folks, the best. We had hoped to grow old together as neighbors...but sadly, that was not to be... You’ll be missed by so many, including the wild birds and abandoned neighborhood cats you fed and nursed back to health over the years. I wish the best for you and your family. Your spirit and heart touched so many...
