“ I remember the day I met stefon, some 11 years ago. My son brought him to meet me so excited to have a new friend, and who shared a common interest. Football. Since that day Devon and stefon have been friends , and any time stefon came to my house he always greeted me with a hug and a smile. The last time we saw stefon he was playing football with my son for the seacoast titans and won the championship game.. we will always remember that big smile, and your love for life, I will always love you and miss you as one of my own. Rest easy stefon. Love Devon and Christy Hewlett
