Susan M. Sykes

Loving Wife, Mother, and Adoring Grandy

LOWELL—Susan Mary (Fitzsimmons) Sykes, the beloved wife of Darren H. Sykes, passed away on Wednesday, February 17, 2016 at her home, surrounded by all of the people she loved.

Susan was born in Lowell on January 10, 1958, a daughter of James and Theresa (Dube) Fitzsimmons of Lowell who survive her. Sue attended Lowell Schools and was a graduate of Lowell High School. She furthered her education at the University of Lowell and Middlesex where she earned her Early Childhood Teaching Certification.

For nearly 30 years Mrs. Sykes taught pre-school, nurturing and loving hundreds of children throughout the years. Her employment was a true vocation, evident to her students and their parents who were lucky enough to spend some formative time in her classroom. Her caring nature was the true definition of who she was.

The love she had for her family was second to none. Sue's grandchildren were her greatest joy. Family time meant everything to her. From Disney Vacations to summer days and nights at Cobbetts Pond, Sue was happiest when she was with the people she loved. Sue is survived by her devoted husband Darren; her loving parents, James and Theresa Fitzsimmons, her adoring children, Joshua Sykes and his wife Abigail of Beverly, Bethany Peters and her husband Brian of Lowell, and Jesse Sykes of Lowell; her five treasured grandchildren, Shane, Thomas, Josephine, Amos, and Keira; her sister Karen Ciaccio and her husband Steve of Nashua; her father-in-law, Henry G. Sykes of Lowell; her sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Heather Busa and her husband Wayne of Tewksbury, Holly Sykes, and Laurel Millett and her husband Emmet all of Lowell; also many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins. Mrs. Sykes also leaves her Building Blocks Family and her Lawrence Street Church Family.

Sue was the daughter-in-law of the late Beverly M. Sykes, whom she cherished, who passed away in 2012.

“ My family will be forever blessed that our oldest daughter, Frankie, was in Mrs. Sykes' pre-school class last year. Frankie will never forget her and the lessons she taught....much more than just letters and numbers...but lessons in kindness and friendship. Our prayers go out to your family.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all the family at this time. As a family we have watched Susan embrace our Abigail as one her own children. She will be remembered as a very loving and caring mother and grandmother. We treasure the memories of Susan attending with her mother Abigail's Symphony concerts and delighting in Amos and Josephine. I will always remember watching Josephine in conversation with Susan head to head talking--and I will treasure watching Amos give his big hugs to her. Josh, Bethany, and Jesse are so fortunate to have a such a strong, vibrant, caring mother. She will be deeply missed. May God give peace and strength.

“ My heart aches for all of you. As a next door neighbor, I witnessed the love your Mom had for all of you. I know how difficult this is and want to reach out in any way I can. Our neighborhood is close and we will protect and comfort all of you in the days ahead. God bless Susan. She knows what a wonderful family she had and will watch over every activity that each of the grandchildren partake in and enjoy.

“ Sue taught my three children at the YMCA nursery school, they are now 28, 29 and 31, she was a sweetheart

“ I met Sue in 1996 at the preschool where we both worked. She loved to sing with the children, she had a lovely voice. We shared many memories from high school over our lunches together while at the preschool; we sang together with the LHS Alumni Chorus, she graduated a year before me. She always mentioned how funny it was that Darren owned a green house when she had the 'brownest' thumbs! I loved her enthusiasm for the Red Sox and how she had to take the day off so she could watch opening day; how she called Mickey Mouse her boyfriend; her love for good food (we ate out a lot after our teachers' meetings). Gone much too soon, she will be sorely missed. Heaven has another faithful servant by His side.

“ Sue welcomed me with open arms my first year at Building blocks ..every month she would hand me a folder of ideas and lessons for my class. She embraced me even though I'm a Yankee Fan! Gone to soon... Rest easy!
