“ Rose,

You and Bill were always two of the best grandparents that our children ever had. You with your calm and motherly demeanor, and Bill with his jovial and upbeat attitude, were a delight whenever you were in the room.

Like Paula, I'm sure Bill is looking over us even as we recall his voice, his laugh, his jokes, his enthusiasm and his caring for others. His own family..you and the girls...always came before his friends and those he cared for at the hospital. He dedicated his life to making others smile...what a gift he was to all of us while he was with here on earth. Now, he will guide and look over us from a new place, and in a new way. He will, as he always did, be looking for the "best deal", "the most value" for each of us, especially you and the girls.

So, let us take joy in having had him with us in this form for so long, and give thanks that we will always have him with in his spirit form....forever finding ways to smooth the path and lighten the burden for each of us....it's just who is is.

Peace and Love,
Dennis
