

Mr. Ali Phomsopha

November 11, 1960 - September 8, 2011

Ali Phomsopha

Loving Husband, Father & Grandfather

President of Wat Lao Temple of New England – Lowell

LOWELL—Ali Phomsopha, age 50, the loving husband of Donna (Hoaung) Phomsopha, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday morning, September 8, 2011 at Lowell General Hospital, following a brief illness.

Ali was born in Laos on November 11, 1960, one of six children of Kien Douangpanha who survives him, and the late Theo Douangpanha. Ali was educated in Laos in both primary school and high school courses. He came to the United States in 1978, settling in California, where he graduated from American River College in Sacramento, CA with a degree in Electronics Technology. He met and married his wife Donna, and they lived in Texas for a while, finally settling in Lowell.

Ali was active in the Laotian Community. He spent much of his time arranging for events at the Wat Lao Temple of New England in Lowell. He was currently serving as President of the Temple.

Some of Ali's hobbies included reading, gardening, and fishing. Ali loved his family and his friends very much, and could always be found in the service of helping others.

Ali is survived by his wife Donna; his daughters Sandy Sitthixay and her husband A.J. and Dora Phomsopha; his son Johnnie Phomsopha, all of Lowell; his granddaughter, Cassidy Sitthixay ; three sisters, two brothers and many extended family members living in Laos.
