Ana Morales Diaz

Loving Mother and Grandmother

LOWELL—Ana Morales Diaz, 68, passed away on Wednesday, May 25, 2022 at Lowell General Hospital Saints Campus, following an extended illness. Ana was the wife of the late Juan A. Cortes.

Ana was born in Guaynabo, Puerto Rico on February 26, 1954, a daughter of the late Esteban Morales and Juana M Diaz Oydlla.

She attended school and graduated high school in Puerto Rico. Ana was a homemaker and loving mother, staying at home to care for her family.

Ana enjoyed puzzles, sewing and cooking. She loved the holidays and spending that time with her family. Ana especially enjoyed her sister's soup. She enjoyed playing games and Dominos with family and friends. Ana loved her animals.

She was a very religious woman. She always played her religious tapes. She was an avid church goer at the IGLESIA TRONO CELESTIAL OF LOWELL.

Surviving Ana are her four children, Juan Cortes and his wife Nelly, Javier Ramos, Leonel Cortes, and Ana Cortes; three grandchildren, Carlos, Johanna, and Alexander; three sisters, Maria Cintron , Lydia Morales, and Asunchio Mendez; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Ana was the mother of the late Jackeline Cortes and grandmother of the late Jannelise Cortes.

FAMILY AND FRIENDS ARE INVITED TO THE FAY McCABE FUNERAL HOME, 105 MOORE STREET, LOWELL, ON WEDNESDAY MORNING FROM 9 AM UNTIL 11:45 AM. ANA'S FUNERAL SERVICE WILL TAKE PLACE AT 12 NOON IN THE FUNERAL HOME. BURIAL WILL FOLLOW IN WESTLAWN CEMETERY.
