

Mrs. Barbara M. (DePocher) (MacIntyre) Garneau

January 14, 1933 - January 14, 2018

BARBARA (DePOCHER) (MacINTYRE) GARNEAU

Longtime Lowell Resident

LOWELL—Barbara M. (DePocher) (MacIntyre) Garneau, 85, passed away on her 85th Birthday on January 14, 2018. She had been a resident at the Palm Center in Chelmsford for the past several years. Barbara was the wife of the late Roland Garneau who passed away in 2003, and the late Robert A. MacIntyre who passed away in 1997.

Barbara was born in Springfield, MA on January 14, 1933, a daughter of the late Nelson and Alice (Conway) DePocher.

She was a graduate of the Sacred Heart Grammar School, and Notre Dame Academy with the Class of 1951.

For many years Barbara was employed at the former Saints Memorial Medical Center, as a patient service representative for over 20 years.

After her retirement, Barbara volunteered in the Labor and Delivery Unit at Lowell General Hospital. She also worked part time in patient services at LGH.

Barbara enjoyed oil painting, sketching, and art work and crafts. She always enjoyed looking forward to going on trips and spending time with her cousins.

Barbara was extremely grateful for the Palm Center staff who have cared for her over the last five years.

Barbara is survived by her daughters, Barbara Hand and her husband Leonard Hand of Dracut, Beth Teixeira and her husband Joseph Teixeira of Dracut; her grandchildren, Jessica Hand of Nashua, NH, Kerri Hand of Pelham, NH, Janet Hand of Pelham, NH, Cynthia McDonagh and her husband Steven McDonagh of Dracut, Bobbie Lynn Lebron and her husband Moises Lopez of Dracut, and Kathleen White of Lowell. Barbara is survive by many great grandchildren, a large extended family, and many treasured friends. Barbara was the mother of the late Robert N. MacIntyre, grandmother of the Stacey Bradley, and lifelong friend of the late Rev. Bernard Belley.
