Beatrice A. Wrobel

7/29/1944 – 12/6/2019

Loving Wife, Mother, Grandmother and Friend.

Chelmsford, MA – Beatrice A. Wrobel, longtime resident of Lowell, MA and Barefoot Bay, FL passed away peacefully at her home in Barefoot Bay Friday December 6, 2019. She was 75 years old.

Beatrice was born in Lowell; a daughter of the late Arthur Gendreau and Jennie (Jarosz). She attended St. Peter's School and Keith Hall, worked for Raytheon, was the owner of Lincoln Hardware, and retired from the Lowell School Department where she taught as a substitute and paraprofessional.

Bea enjoyed spending time with family and friends at her lake house in Derry, NH – "the camp." Later in life, she spent her winters in Florida where she loved to golf in the Barefoot Bay Martini League with many of her close friends. Through the years, as a testament to her generosity, she volunteered as part of Friends of Lowell High and St. Margaret's Blessed Virgin Sodality. Bea also loved watching and supporting her grandchildren, Nicole and Eric, in any and all of their endeavors. She had a kind heart and a generous soul, and she was always willing to help wherever and whenever she could. It did not matter if you were a friend, co-worker, student or customer, Bea always treated you like family.

Beatrice was predeceased by her husband Walter of 48 years, and her daughter Katherine who passed away in 1986. She is survived by her devoted sons Walter III of Chelmsford, Kenneth and his wife Tiffany of Fitchburg, and her adoring grandchildren Nicole and Eric. Beatrice is also survived by her siblings Arthur Gendreau and his wife Sheila, Carol Villineau, and Arlene Zousoumas and husband Spiros, sisters-in-law Maryanne Hutchinson and husband David, Elaine Wrobel; also many good friends, several nieces, nephews, cousins, and grand pups.
