

Mr. Carlos Morales

December 3, 1970 - November 8, 2018

Carlos Morales

Beloved Son, Father, Grandfather and Brother

LOWELL—Carlos Morales, 47, a resident of Billerica, passed away on Thursday, November 8, 2018 at Lowell General – Saints, following a lengthy illness.

Carlos was born in Manhattan on December 3, 1970, a son of Francisco Ferrer Sr. and Ana Morales who survive him. Carlos and his family came to Lowell where he attended school.

Carlos was the greatest, most loving, dedicated family man. He was known and loved by so many for his sense of humor and his unique, well-dressed “Old School Style” and bling. Carlos was always someone you could depend and count on. He was always there to lend a helping hand. Carlos had the ability to make anyone smile and would brighten up any room he entered. He was a wonderful son, brother and friend, and an amazing father and grandfather. Known to his grandchildren as Papa, his three grandsons meant the world to him. Carlos will be deeply and sadly missed, and his memory will be carried on in our hearts.

Carlos is survived by his parents Francisco Ferrer, Sr. and Ana Morales; his two daughters, Linette Morales and Stephanie Morales and her fiancé Keith Osgood; his three grandsons, Kayden, Ayvian, and Aceson; his sisters, Magaly Pagan and her husband Luis and Miryam Torres; his Francisco Ferrer,

Jr. and his fiancée Briana Angove; his nieces and nephews, Alicia Pagan, Anthony Pagan, Jordan Leonardo, Carlos Sarrano, and Xavier Sarrano; also several aunts, uncles, and cousins.
