

Mrs. Carmen M. Santiago

January 8, 1933 - January 25, 2018

Carmen M. Santiago passed away on Thursday evening, January 25, 2018 at the Westford House Nursing Home. She was 85 years old.

Born in Barranquitas, Puerto Rico on January 8, 1933, she was a daughter of the late Jose Alvarado and Filomena Concepcion. Carmen came to the United States in the late 1960's. In Puerto Rico, she worked making cigars on a Tobacco Farm. Carmen was the wife of the late Oscar Rojas Alvarado and the late Joviniano Santiago.

She is survived by her children, Jamie Santiago, Nelly Santiago, Carlos Santiago, Harry Santiago, Josian Santiago, Nelson Santiago, Carmen Rojas, Nancy Rojas, David Rojas, Oscar Rojas, and Wilson Rojas. Carmen also leaves two brothers, three sisters, and many, many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Previous Events

Calling Hours

JAN 30. 7:30 AM - 11:30 AM (ET)

Fay McCabe Funeral Home
105 Moore Street
Lowell, MA 01852
(978) 459-9222
sean@faymccabe.com
<https://www.faymccabe.com>

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Carmen M. Santiago

January 28, 2023 at 03:09 PM

“ To Eddie ,Darlene ,Natalie ,Eddie jr. and the Santiago Family , we know your hearts are heavy with the loss of your Mother .Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time of sorrow . With Love Scott& Denise Dubois

DD - January 30, 2018 at 06:38 PM

“ So sorry to all the family's of Carmen Santiago, She is going to be miss by many people. She touch many heart in her life. Love u, you are a Angel in heaven, god love u forever.

Debbie Mendonca - January 30, 2018 at 01:47 AM

“ I love you wela til we meet again look over all of us

Jennifer Diaz - January 29, 2018 at 06:13 PM

