“ Here it is January 5, 2019 and I am just learning quite by accident of the passing of Cecile. I wish I had known when it happened because I would have gone to pay my respects. I remember Cecile as a wonderful and caring person. We grew up together very young kids living at Branch Street in Lowell and Priscilla was my girlfriend. I remember warm summer nights when Pop Roucher would come out on the porch and entertain all the kids by playing his guitar, Ali playing the Base and Priscilla on the accordion, Wonderful Memories, Great Entertainment, A Wonderful Family.

I extend my sincere sympathy to the Roucher family, God Bless her memory.
