“ My beautiful Cindy, every time i close my eyes I can see you but when I open them, you are not there....I fall to my knees and cry, I search everything just to find a picture, comment, anything you have ever sent to me or said to me, I stare at your page hoping to find you there, I wondered Second Life at all the places we loved and called our second home, remembering the fun, laughter, the giggles and boy did we get into some mischief with all our role play, over the years we created twenty two avatars in SL and most have the same last names because we always wanted to be sisters, remember our twin avs :) ... SL with you was the best of times, how we dressed up all the time, modeling our clothes, all the homes we lived in, all the things we created for us, SL was our favorite place, but we also loved other games like oz fishing, the other fishing one, Pogo and many FB games and more...we gamed, lived, loved and laughed, we cried, hurt and celebrated too... love your smile, we always hugged a lot, we video chat and voiced a lot, hours and hours, I will miss seeing your smile, your face, hearing your voice, i will miss you calling me sis and how you always added "I love you hugsssss"....I love you too and always will, it will be so hard without you, you meant and mean the world to me, I wish we could have meet in real life like we promised each other but even though we never met in real life it felt like we knew each other lifetime.... So soon, so sudden, my heart goes out to your kids, PJ, Shyana and Selena and the rest of the family. I am so heartbroken, I wish I still had that one more moment with you, I need to talk to you, I still have so much to say.....

((Cindy)))))))))))))))))))))) <3

“ So many great memories, sitting out side on the stairs all hours of the night being silly laughing. Lots of sad memories, you being there for me when my mom passed and me being there for you when Pedro passed. Lots of secrets, I promise not to tell. We drifted apart over the past year but you always were like my sister and sisters fight and argue as we did... You mean more then just a cousin to me, You were one of my best friends for the past 15 years, my side kick, my partner in crime. Now I'm stuck with Mary and Brenda .. Thanks Alot!!! XOXO

I can remember growing up with Cindy in shaunassey,going roller skating every weekend or just running threw the streets as kids. As we grew older we went our separate ways but always kept in touch. Just over the last year or so cindy and I have spent so much time together talking about the.good old days when we were younger, talking about my house now but back than the CAMP!!! So many great memories. I can hear her laughs even today. She had such a great memory half the stuff I forgot about but she never did. I know she will continue sharing those great memories with all of our loved ones in heaven. As adults and most recently cindy and I had the opportunity to spend a lot of time together and I will cherish all those memories forever. We always told each other I LOVE YOU CUZ on a daily basis. Although she is in heaven I can still hear her sayin those.words to me, and she will forever be in my heart.

I LOVE YOU CUZ!!!!!!!
