

Ms. Deborah L. Menzies

December 6, 1955 - February 6, 2016

Deborah L. Menzies

Deborah L. Menzies died unexpectedly on February 6, 2016 after a short illness. She was the beloved daughter of the late Francis and Gertrude (Dupuis) Menzies, and one of 11 sisters. She is survived by one daughter Christie Menzies, son-in-law Tito Diaz, four adoring grandchildren and Craig Menzies -the man she cherished as her own son. She was also loved by many cousins, nieces, nephews and her two cats. Debbie was a funny, "tell it as it is" woman that was adored by many. She treasured her family and the simple moments of life including watching TV, napping or going to her sister Joanne's cookouts. Debbie enjoyed cruising around Lowell on her scooter and would laugh about the adventures she faced while doing so. For instance, Debbie often shared the story about her scooter stalling in the middle of Thorndike Street and her sister Diane "the hero" saving her by pushing the stalled scooter out of harm's way with her own! She loved sitting outside enjoying the weather and the company of friends/family or going to George's for a steak and cheese. She loved clowns and oddly had a passion for collecting dimes. Debbie was truly one of a kind and would conform for NO ONE. She would cuss you out one minute and proclaim her love for you the next. Her "out of the blue" calls telling you how much she loves you will be missed. She is truly irreplaceable and we will spend the rest of our lives remembering and sharing funny stories of how loving and scary Debbie could be.

*I lost my best friend. I loved everything about her. She judged anybody. I will miss her always.
Whenever I hear your voice in the wind. I'll say a sweet prayer for you!! Whenever I see a picture of your smiling face, I'll say a sweet prayer for you. When I dream of you night or day, I'll say a sweet prayer for you! Whenever I feel your warm embrace, I'll say a sweet prayer for you, but most of all when I miss sadly, I'll say a sweet prayer for you. Love you always Michelle.*
