

Miss Destiney Phetchamphone

October 22, 1994 - September 5, 2022

Loving granddaughter, daughter, mother, sister, wife and friend. Destiney was born in Redding, California on October 22, 1994 and spent most of her life raised in California. At the age of 17, she moved to Lowell, Massachusetts to be with her family and here she spent the remainder of her time between Massachusetts and Maine.

Destiney is the daughter of Phommachanh Sikhaoulouanglath and Thai Paseut. She attended elementary school, middle school and part of high school in Redding, CA and finished the remainder of high school in Massachusetts.

Destiney enjoyed music, fashion, expressing her creativity through arts and crafts, indulging in her favorite foods and most of all, spending time with her loved ones. She was always the light that shined the brightest in the room and her personality and beauty always remained unmatched. She was an amazing mother who wanted to give her babies nothing but the world. She loved being around her family and friends and having the best time of her life. If laughing was a disease, then we all caught it from Destiney because she never missed a chance to make everyone laugh.

Destiney is survived by her beautiful children, Han (10), Avyanna (7), King (6), her grandparents, Nanh Phetchamphone (77) and Souk Phetchamphone (72), her mother, Phommachanh Sikhaoulouanglath (52) and her father, Thai Paseut (55), and her two older sisters, Kala Phetchamphone (31) and Vickie Phetchamphone (29). Destiney joined heaven too soon at the age of 27 and she will live on and continue to be remembered by the rest of her family and friends. Her family and friends will continue to share unforgettable moments that they had with her and everlasting photos.

Family and Friends may call at Fay McCabe Funeral Home, 105 Moore Street Lowell, on Sunday, September 11th from 1 PM until 5 PM.

Burial will be on Monday, September 12th at 1PM at Westlawn II Cemetery 1375 Gorham St. Lowell.
