Diane D. Rowbotham

Loving Mother and Grandmother

Diane (Dumont) Rowbotham, 81, a longtime resident of South Lowell, Salem NH, and most recently Methuen MA, passed away peacefully on January 24, 2025 at the High Pointe House in Haverhill. Diane was the beloved wife of the late James M. Rowbotham. Diane was born in Lowell on Sept 18, 1943, daughter of the late George and Martha (Gendreau) Dumont. She was a graduate of St. Marie's Grammar School and Lowell Trade High School.

Diane took care of many children over the years and treated them as her own. Diane was happiest when around her family, children, and especially her grandchildren. Her door was always open to friends, neighbors, and sometimes even strangers. She was a second mom to all the neighborhood kids. Later in life she couldn't wait for people to come visit "at the lake". She loved watching everyone have fun.

Diane is survived by her four children, James "Spanky" Rowbotham, Tammy and Jim Demers, John and Michelle Rowbotham, and Cindy Rowbotham and Dan Jones; her six grandchildren Christina Demers and her fiancé Stephen Pica, Alexander Demers, John Rowbotham, Deborah Rowbotham and her partner Kody Vallee, Darren Jones and his partner Julia Palizzolo, and Brady Jones; her sister Simone Berube and Bob Torcoletti; sister in-laws Doris Boule and Roger Geoffroy, Ann Marie and George Hansen. Diane also leaves her nieces, nephews, cousins, and many special friends.

Diane was predeceased by her mother and father in-law James and Annette (Dumont) Rowbotham, her brother Roland "Sonny" Dumont, and brother and sister in-law Richard "Rocky" and Carol Rowbotham.

“ Thank you for all the memories Aunt Di! I remember going to your house and seeing the fish tank. Visiting with you at the lake and swimming to the island in the tubes and how good you and Uncle Jim were to Evan, Camryn, Bryan and me. Rest in peace ❤️ Amy
