

Mr. Domingo Dominguez

May 12, 1950 - November 3, 2016

OBITUARY

DOMINGO DOMINGUEZ

Loving Husband, Father, and Grandfather
“MINGO”

LOWELL—Domingo Dominguez, age 66, a resident of the Centralville section of Lowell, passed away on Thursday, November 3, 2016 at Lowell General Hospital. He was the spouse of Carmen Santos. He was also the former husband of Luz Dominguez. Domingo raised ten children, three of his own and seven chosen by heart.

Domingo was born in La Fermina, Humacao, Puerto Rico on May 12, 1950, a son of Perfecto Dominguez and Benedicta Torres.

Surviving Domingo are his children, Wanda Dominguez, Domingo Dominguez, Jr. and Daniel Dominguez, Antolino Carrasco, Carmen Carrasco, David Carrasco, Linda Cunha, Elizabeth Carrasco, Vanessa Ortiz, and Raymond Ortiz; seven brothers and sisters; twenty five grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. He also leaves many nieces, nephews and cousins.

He came to the United States in 1967, and completed his education in Hartford, Connecticut.

For many years, Domingo worked as a welder for Cambridge Tool.

In his free time, Domingo loved to listen to Spanish Oldies. He enjoyed watching Spanish Soaps, over and over again. He also enjoyed the Rosa de Guadalupe Show. He loved to joke with his children at times, but at the same time kept a serious face. Mingo had a big heart. When he showed his grouchiness to his kids or his grandchildren, it was not because he didn't love them, it was because he wanted more from them. Domingo also enjoyed hanging out with his best friend, Ciro.
