Donna M. Sullivan

Loving Wife, Mother, Grandmother, and Sister

LOWELL—Donna Marie (Soucy) Sullivan, 62, passed away peacefully at her home, on Monday evening, December 2, 2019, surrounded by her loving family. She was the beloved wife of John J. Sullivan.

Donna was born in Lowell on April 30, 1957, a daughter of the late Maurice L. Soucy and Agnes M. (Boisvert) Soucy. She attended Lowell Schools including the E. N. Rogers School and Lowell High School.

Donna worked as a house cleaner and later on as a child care provider.

Donna was all about family. From a young age growing up as the big sister, she took care of all of her siblings. This continued with her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Donna loved kids. Donna was a classy lady. She lit up any room she walked into. Everybody loved Donna. In her free time, she liked to bake, go yard-saleing, enjoyed NASCAR, and playing Bingo. When her son Eric was overseas serving in the military, Donna would always be on her computer keeping track of the happenings around the world. Trips to the beach were one of her most favorite things.

This time of year, right around Christmas, Donna would go on her computer and pick a few children in need to buy Christmas presents for. Donna was a loving caring person who will be deeply missed by her family and all those who knew and loved her.

Donna is survived by her husband John J. Sullivan; her children, Sherry Miller and her husband Richard Boissonneault, Shawn J. Miller and his wife Colleen Miller, and Eric J. Miller; her seven grandchildren, Kristian Miller, Anthony Murray, Richard Murray, Chelsea Gentile, Zabrina Miller, Dylon Miller, and Jaxon Miller; two great grandchildren, Kayden Perry and Nova Murray; her siblings, Rita Anderson, Michelle Duclos, David Soucy and Robert Soucy; her former daughter-in-law, Christine Christian; several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Donna was the sister of the late Maureen Miller.
