

Mrs. Eleana C. Dusablon

December 18, 1956 - January 30, 2025

ELEANA C. DUSABLON

Eleana C. Dusablon, 68, passed away January 30, 2025 at Worcester Memorial Hospital after an extended illness. She was born in Lowell on December 18, 1956, a daughter of the late Alfred J. and Marion (Desmarais) Dusablon. Eleana was educated in the Lowell School System. She enjoyed dancing, music, cooking, and spending time with her grandchildren.

Eleana is survived by her son, Thomas J. Gross of Brockton, MA; two daughters, Amanda Silva of Sarasota, FL, and Nicole Flanagan of Hamden, CT; six grandchildren, Emylee, Coty, Chase, Madison, Mason, and Omari; her nephew, James Dusablon and his family of Lowell, her nieces, Joanne Dusablon and Tammy Dusablon. Eleana was the sister of the late Judy Doyle who died in 2015, and Alfred Dusablon who died in 2018.

AT THE FAMILY'S REQUEST, ALL FUNERAL SERVICES WERE PRIVATE.

“ You will definitely be missed, I'm glad I got to spend the time I did with you and it was definitely a pleasure to meet you. I will keep my promise to always protect and take care of Nico and Omari. Make sure you don't forget your sunscreen for that beautiful beach up there. Love you always Melissa Dusablon (inside joke) 💜👍🕊️

“ The last few days spent with you was bittersweet. It was the happiest I've seen you in a very long time, because we were all together. The laughter we shared, the jokes and sassiness that you always had was at its peak. I will miss you forever and I will always love you. Rest in peace mum
