

Mr. Elkin Ramiero Cano

October 23, 1957 - February 24, 2013

Elkin R. Cano

Loving Husband and Father

LOWELL—Elkin Ramiero Cano, 55, passed away on Sunday, February 24, 2013 unexpectedly at his home. Elkin was born in Medellin, Colombia on October 23, 1957 to Ester Cano and Marcos Cano. He came to New Jersey in his adult years, where he worked in an Italian Restaurant as a cook. It was during that time that Elkin met his beloved wife, Luz Mary (Valencia) Cano. They married three years later and settled in Lowell, MA to raise a family. For many years, Elkin worked at UMass Lowell as a custodian. He cherished his work and was always determined to do an excellent job. Elkin, along with his wife, was an uplifting spirit and enjoyed spending time with his family. Together they were active members of St. Patrick's Church. He took pleasure in traveling for the holidays. Elkin was a joyful, relaxing person who knew how to handle any type of situation.

Elkin is survived by his children, Kenny Cano and Lesly Cano; his wife Luz Cano all of Lowell; two brothers, Edgar Cano and his wife Estela Cano of New Jersey, and Alex Cano; his sister, Gloria Cotes and her husband Omar Cotes; his sister-in-law, Olga L. Valencia and her three children, Vanessa Muriel, Julian Muriel, and Melisa Muriel; his nieces and nephews, Marly Valencia and Jhony Valencia; his brother-in-law, Elkin E. Muriel; his grandmother-in-law, Olga Quiceno and grandfather-in-law Antonio Valencia.

Elkin will always be missed and never be forgotten. His family wishes to deeply thank everyone that has come to support them through these tough times.

“ Cuando un amigo se va queda un espacio vacío que no lo puede llenar la llegada de otro amigo. Cuando un amigo se va queda un tizón encendido que no se puede apagar ni con las aguas de un río.
“Alberto Cortez”

Se nos adelantó porque para allá vamos todos, además lo mejor de él sigue en tu corazón.

“Facundo Cabral”

Por lo cual estoy seguro de que ni la muerte, ni la vida, ni los ángeles, ni los principados, ni potestades, ni lo presente, ni lo porvenir, ni lo alto, ni lo profundo, ni ninguna otra cosa creada nos podrá separar del amor de Dios, que es en Cristo Jesús Señor nuestro.

“La Santa Biblia”

Cuando un amigo se va queda un espacio vacío que no lo puede llenar la llegada de otro amigo. Cuando un amigo se va queda un tizón encendido que no se puede apagar ni con las aguas de un río.

Se nos adelantó porque para allá vamos todos, además lo mejor de él sigue en tu corazón.

“Facundo Cabral”

Dejaste una huella imborrable en nuestros corazones de camaradería, de amistad sincera, del humor y la alegría sana y pura. Siempre fuiste un gran caballero. Quedamos muy tristes con tu pronta partida pero tenemos la esperanza de que estas en la presencia del Señor.

“ Para la Familia de Don Elkin Cano
Fue con gran asombro y tristeza escuchar esta noticia, para nuestra comunidad Colombiana en Lowell es una gran perdida porque Don Elkin era una persona muy respectada y todo un caballero, mi esposo Oscar tuvo la oportunidad de compartir muchas veces con él y me comentaba siempre que era un gran Señor, a Doña Luz y sus hijos mis sinceras condolencias, que Dios les ayude a aceptar esta perdida tan grande y les de fortaleza para seguir adelante..
Que en paz descanse Don Elkin.
