August 27, 1928 - December 4, 2013

OBITUARY

Esther Oyola Rodriguez

Loving Mother & Grandmother

LOWELL—Esther Oyola Rodriguez, 85, passed away on Wednesday, December 4, 2013 at the Town and Country Nursing Home, surrounded by her loving family. She was the wife of the late Jesus M. Rodriguez Ortiz who passed away in 2006.

Esther was born in Caguas, Puerto Rico, on August 27, 1928, a daughter of the late Flor Oyola and Flora Lopez.

She came to the United States in 1945 and worked in the manufacturing industry in New Jersey as an assembler. After marrying and starting her family, Esther returned to Puerto Rico and remained at home as a housewife and mother.

Her daughter Magdalena remembers her Mother as an awesome cook. They grew their own food on the farm and Esther was generous and shared food with friends and neighbors who didn't have enough to eat.

Esther was famous for her "Limber" fruit popsicles made with the fresh fruit she grew. Esther, her husband Jesus, and their daughters enjoyed fishing together. After the catch, Esther would prepare the fish to feed her family. Esther was the mother of the late Alba L. Rodriguez who died on June 5, 2003. She is survived by her daughter, Magdalena M. Rodriguez of Lowell; ten grandchildren, twenty grandchildren; four brothers; two sisters; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Esther's Visiting Hours will take place on FRIDAY MORNING from 9A.M. until 10:30 AM. at the FAY McCABE FUNERAL HOME, 105 MOORE STREET, LOWELL. Her Funeral Prayers will follow at 10:30 A.M. in the Funeral Home.
