

Mrs. Florence S. Vincent

April 16, 1959 - March 24, 2018

Florence S. Vincent

Beloved Daughter, Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Sister

LOWELL—Florence Stephanie (Varounis) Vincent, 58, a resident of Pawtucketville, passed away peacefully on March 24, 2018.

She was the beloved wife of Gerard A. Vincent, Sr.

Florence was born in Lowell on April 16, 1959, a daughter of Harry Varounis who survives her, and the late Angelike (Emanouil) Varounis, who passed away on December 11, 2014.

Flo grew up in Lowell and attended the Lowell Schools and Lowell High School. Prior to her illness, she was employed as a Shift Supervisor at Walgreens on Bridge St. in Lowell.

Flo was a “Mom” to everyone. She was selfless in all of her acts, always putting others before herself. She was a good cook, especially her spaghetti and meatballs! She loved the New England Patriots. Flo could talk to anyone, had a gift for making others feel comfortable around her. She was a hard working woman, and was strong willed. She was a fighter. Her family was Number #1, and they felt her love in everything she did. She remained herself, right up until the end. She will be deeply missed by everyone who knew and loved her.

Flo is survived by her father, Harry Varounis of Florida; her husband, Gerard A. Vincent, Sr. of Lowell; her children, Michelle Emond, Kimberly Emond, Gerard A. Vincent, Jr., and Daniel Vincent; five grandchildren, Chassidy Boland, Emily Jones, Macayla Jones, Joseph Jacques, and Cassandra St. Hilaire; two sisters, Patricia Stanton and her husband David of Florida, and Eva Butler of Chelmsford; and a brother, Dimitri Varounis of Florida. Flo also leaves several nieces, nephews, and cousins. Florence was the sister of the late George Varounis.

“ I was just informed about this yesterday. I am utterly devastated, and haven't stopped crying since I found out.

I pray in Jesus' Name that God continues to bring your husband, sons, daughters, and all of your family peace and strength while dealing with this incredible loss.

It was an honor and privilege to know you, Flo. You were the most beautiful, caring, loving, kind, and generous woman, with an outstanding sense of humor and wit to match!

I still have a voicemail that I refused to get rid of from you, and I thank God that I never did, so that I can listen to your voice whenever I want.

I thought of you constantly after I left the store, and God knows it's the truth, and I'll still think of and remember you and your kindness and loving personality forever.

I've been missing you, and I'll always miss you.

Love always and forever,

NMA

“ I am so sorry for passing of this beautiful woman. She was too young to be an angel. My condolences to her husband Gerry. Sons Gerry & Danny. Daughters Michelle & Kim. We would be outside our home and would strike many a conversation - as she was leaving for work - or coming home from work. I will miss those talks as we opened up about everything. Its not going to be the same. I miss you Flo and was so lucky the day you looked at my vacant apartment and you moved in many years ago. Tears - Love you.
