

Frances C Sebloski

January 17, 1920 - August 16, 2010

LOWELL—Frances C. (Pike) Sebloski, the beloved wife of the late Andrew J. Sebloski, and a lifelong resident of Lowell, passed away on Monday evening at Wingate in Haverhill. She was 90 years old.

Frances was born in Lowell on January 17, 1920, a daughter of the late Ralph and Mary C. (Bakke) Pike. Frances was educated in Lowell schools and was a parishioner of the former Sacred Heart Church. She met and married her high school sweetheart, Andrew Sebloski at Sacred Heart Church on January 18, 1941.

Frances was employed at the Edith Norse Rogers V.A. Hospital in Bedford, in the area of food service. She worked at the hospital for many years, retiring at the age of 76.

As a parishioner of Sacred Heart Church, Frances was an active participant. She volunteered in many areas and also taught CCD.

Frances was a woman of strong character. She was honest, truthful, and loyal. Always there, Frances would do anything for anyone.

Frances was a trustworthy soul. She loved sewing and crocheting, and at one time, Frances made her own clothes, as well as children's clothing and even maternity clothing for her granddaughter to wear. She was an eccentric lady.

She enjoyed trips to Foxwoods and liked to eat Chinese food at her home with a Coke. Most of all, Frances loved her family, especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Frances is survived by her daughter, Sheila Lepine and her husband Donald; her three grandchildren, Kimberley Canarelli and her husband Francis, Jennifer DiGaetano and her husband Vincent, and Jeffrey Lepine and his wife; her great grandchildren, Alexandra Lepine, Andrew Canarelli, Madeleine DiGaetano, and Olivia DiGaetano; a sister, Elizabeth Grzyb of Lowell, and many nieces, nephews, and cousins, including Richard Austin.
