“ Emil and Carol Myskowski are both sad and prayerful here in Virginia as we learn today of Frank's death. We still remember our visit to the Carolan home in Chelmsford so many years ago. Frank was retained by Emil's dad to prepare his will. Emil & Frank worked together at Itek Corporation in Lexington as photo-engineers on government satellite projects. As a kid, Emil sang in St Margaret's Church choir where Frank sang as an adult. As a teen, Emil fished for flounder in Marblehead Bay near where Frank would later celebrate his Irish roots. After retirement from CIA, Emil met with Father George in DC on a philosophy project. Mass and Lenten retreat day (that Deacon Emil is coordinating) prayer intentions will be done by the Arlington Dioceses deacons on March 12 and that evening Frank's memory will be honored in a choral concert of Irish and American Folks Songs in which Emil will be singing. Frank was a gentle friend, an excellent communicator, a man of deep faith and an extraordinary human being.

“ We were all so saddened to hear of Uncle Frank's passing. A light has certainly gone out in this world. He was truly a fascinating man, a great friend to me and the BEST uncle ever. He has been a presence in my life since his wedding to my Aunt when I was very young. As I got older, we shared a lot of interests and my family and I loved being included in all the wonderful family holiday gatherings with him as the master chef. He was fascinated by so many things, from photography, cooking, sailing, genealogy, music of all kinds and too many other things to mention. During a visit, if I ever mentioned something, anything, he'd jump up and say 'Hold on, I have a book about that upstairs! I'll be right back!' And down he'd come with a huge stack of books or articles to loan me. I NEVER left that house empty handed. He had so many interests, and had numerous careers, it seemed as a young adult before becoming a lawyer. His favorite saying to me was, 'I wonder what I'll be when I grow up?!'

In recent years he and Agnes joined a music session with my parents and me in Georgetown, Ma. They came every week and fit right in with everyone, both becoming welcome and valuable members of this group. Frank was infamous on his bongo drums and singing with my Dad. He was truly a fascinating man, a great friend to me and the BEST uncle ever. I truly hope that he is at peace and 'Up There' at a fabulous music session with my parents, Fr. Ed, Uncle Bill and all our musical ancestors... RIP Uncle Frank.
