Georgina Tomas

LOWELL—Georgina (Conceicao) Tomas, the beloved wife of the late Manuel Tomas, passed away on Thursday, January 25, 2024 at the Blaire House in Tewksbury. She was 94 years old.

Georgina was born in Luz Graciosa, Azores, Portugal on December 8, 1929 a daughter of the late Jose Bettencourt and Charlota (Espinola) Bettencourt. She was educated in Graciosa. Georgina married Manuel Tomas in 1947 and together celebrated 76 years of marriage. They came to the United States and have lived in Lowell for 57 years. She was a parishioner of St. Anthony's Church. Prior to her retirement, Georgina was employed as an assembler with Wang Labs in Lowell. Previously, for many years, she was a clothing stitcher for Nathen Solomon Company.

Georgina enjoyed cooking for her family on Sundays. She loved her grandchildren and enjoyed making clothes for them. She was a member of The Seniors Club at The Blues, and The Holy Ghost Society, where she was involved and volunteered with the Feasts. She was a member of the Holy Trinity Feast. Georgina enjoyed the holidays with her family, crocheting, and watching all the gameshows on TV.

Georgina is survived by her son, Manuel Tomas Jr. and his wife Maria of Lowell; her daughter Maria P. Silva of Lowell and Dennis, MA; two grandchildren, David Tomas of Lowell and Gina Ryan of Groton; two great grandchildren, Isabella Ryan and Anthony Ryan, both of Groton, MA; her sisters, Glorinda Bettencourt of Peabody, and Alvarina Braga of Lowell; several nieces, nephews, her sisters-in-laws, and many friends.

Georgina was the mother of the late Antonio Picanco, and sister of the late Conceicao Bettencourt, Judite Silva, and Jose Bettencourt.
