

Mr. Hector L. Cruz Jr.

October 13, 1973 - April 5, 2024

Hector L. Cruz, Junior

Beloved Father, Son, Brother, Cousin

Lowell- Hector L. Cruz, 50, passed away suddenly on April 5, 2024 at his home. Hector was born in Lowell on October 13, 1973, a son of Myrna Morales who survives him, and the late Hector J. Cruz. He was educated in the Lowell Schools. For most of his working career, Hector was employed in the construction trade. Hector enjoyed antique cars, Nike Air Max Sneakers, and was a clothing fanatic, always known to be well dressed wherever he went. He loved the New York Yankees, and going to the gun range with friends. He liked to visit his friends as a routine.

He loved all dogs and adored and cherished his grandchildren. Most of all he enjoyed his hats and sneakers.

Surviving Hector besides his mother Myrna are his two children, Jahaira Garcia and her husband Jonathan of Nashua, NH, and Courtney Tatro of Lowell; two grandchildren, Janira and Jondel; his siblings, Myrna Ivette Cruz of Lowell, Elaine Cruz of Burlington, Luciano Vasquez of Lowell, Caleb Cruz of Puerto Rico, Issac Cruz of Puerto Rico, and Gabriele Cruz of Lowell; his special cousin Danny Rivera of Lowell; several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, many dear friends including his dear friend Steven Cintron of Lowell.

“ Tuni, you was my everything, my heart is completely shattered in a million pieces 💔 this is so hard for us all that loved and cared for you. You was my bright star, my backbone, my emotional support system. I still keep the door open for you to come in every night ☐ we will see each other again at heavens door. RIP little brother, you're finally free 😞😭😭

Tuni you always showed up for your sister. My amazing, beautiful neighbor who was so grateful for an overprotective brother who always had her back. Rest easy. Say hi to my sister.
