

Ms. Hilda Navedo Pimentel

August 28, 1949 - December 17, 2025

BOSTON- Hilda Navedo Pimentel passed away on December 17, 2025 surrounded by her loved ones. Hilda was born in Puerto Rico on August 28, 1949 to Diego Navedo and Petra Valle. She was educated in Puerto Rico and soon after moved to mainland United States, living first in Lowell then settled in Boston where she lived for over twenty years. Hilda was a hard worker and worked at Joan Fabrics in Lowell for many years. She loved her family and cherished every minute with them. Hilda was a fan of Spanish music, loved watching soap operas and Family Feud. Hilda was the Boston Red Sox's number 1 fan and never missed watching a game. She completed cross word puzzles and could always be found with her phone to her ear catching up with family and friends. Time spent with family were her most favorite memories. She also loved taking rides with her daughter and daughter-in-law. Hilda was loved by many people and will be greatly missed.

Hilda is survived by her son Johnny of Lowell, her daughter Lillian and daughter-in-law Carmen both of Boston; her brother Ramon of Puerto Rico, her sisters Mercedes of New Hampshire, Justina of Lowell, Angelina of Lowell, and Luz of Lowell; and many grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was the beloved sister of the late Luisa and Eduardo.
