

Mr. Ivan Alvarez

November 6, 1957 - May 2, 2015

Ivan Alvarez

Dad

Our family has recently experienced the loss of a father, brother, son, grandfather and uncle, Ivan Alvarez. He is survived by his only daughter, Ivy Rashid; 4 siblings, a brother Christian Alvarez, three sisters Katherine Alvarez, Miriam Alvarez and Miggy Arizmendi; as well as three grandchildren, Deven and Genesis Rashid and Armani Vazquez.

Ivan was born in Manhattan, New York on November 6, 1957. His father is Francisco Alvarez and Mother was Lydia Vega. Ivan was full of life, love, always happy and lighted a room with his presence. However much or little he had, he shared it all and would take the shirt off his back for those around him. He left lasting, loving impressions on everyone he came in contact with.

He loved dancing and had a passion for salsa music as well as boxing, and always made people laugh with his unforgettable humor.

He worked at Bridgewater State Hospital and Worcester State Hospital as a mental health counselor, at Fry Shoe Company, and managed retail stores in the Boston area. His days were full of joy enjoying his family, friends and grandchildren. His smile, laughter, humor, and presence will be forever missed but he will always be in our hearts.
