

Mrs. Jean C. Newell

September 29, 1931 - January 17, 2021

Jean C. Newell

September 29, 1931 - January 17, 2021

Jean C. (Bailey) Newell, a lifelong resident of Lowell, died Sunday, January 17, 2021. Jean was the wife of the late Donald (Bunky) Newell, who died in July of 1995.

Jean was the daughter of John S. and Beatrice B (Messier) Bailey. She was predeceased by her daughter, Cathy Newell who died in May of 1980. Jean's family finds peace knowing that they are now reunited again. She was also predeceased by her sister, Eileen Johnson and her brother, Bob Bailey.

Jean dedicated her life to her family. She was their rock. Jean loved to travel. She was her happiest by the ocean, soaking up the sun. She spent many years with her family at Salisbury Beach. Jean had an appreciation for nature that some may take for granted, and a love for seafood.

Jean had a vibrant social life and was always dressed to impress. She was a class act. She will be remembered for her contagious smile and laughter.

Jean is survived by her daughters, Linda, and her husband Leo Bergeron, Maryrose, and her husband Brian Murphy; her son, Donald, and his wife Natalie Newell. Jean also leaves behind her grandchildren Melissa, James, Leah, and Catherine, as well as her great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

“ Oh Linda and family,
Gary McGee and I always looked for Jean, while enjoying the evenings at the SAC club.
We remember her as always smiling, and quite a lady. She will be missed
Sincerely,
Linda Albert

“ To You Mary Rose and Brian,
I don't think there can be any words that will describe the words I like to tell you about Jean, except that I am very sorry for your loss. I did spend some time with her at the beach.
But I did spend a lot of times with her at The Sac Club, where I had plenty of laughs with her!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
She was a Great Lady!!!
And an even better Great Lady to know as a Friend!!
