

Mr. Jimmy Fraser-Rodriguez

August 30, 1989 - November 29, 2021

Jimmy Fraser-Rodriguez

Jimmy Donald Fraser 32, passed away on November 29, 2021 at Nashoba Medical Center, following a sudden cardiac medical event. Jimmy was the loving fiancé of Kristina M. Celeste.

Jimmy was born in Lowell on August 30, 1989, son of Jimmy Rodriguez of Lowell, and the late Kristie A. Fraser, who passed away in 2013.

Jimmy grew up in Lowell, Dracut, and Chelmsford, and attended Nashoba Valley Technical High School, where he took Auto Body Mechanics. He worked hard in the restaurant business until he decided to take some time off to raise his twins, started day trading and opened Ausicle Recording Studio in Ayer in 2019.

Jimmy was passionate about all types of music, since a teenager he wrote lyrics and knew all of the words to countless songs.

Jimmy loved to talk football, he was an avid NY Jets fan, though he would admit to the Jets being “the worst team in the NFL”

Jimmy always had a new hobby, the latest being RC Race Cars that he would build and race with friends and family. Jimmy loved traveling and seeing new places. He dabbled in the stock market and Cryptocurrency but loved learning about them even more. Jimmy was a patient and caring father. He always enjoyed spending time with friends, but loved nothing more than spending time with his beautiful 2 year old twins.

Surviving Jimmy is his fiancé of 14 years, Kristina Celeste and their twin babies, James and Gemma of Ayer; his father, Jimmy Rodriguez of Lowell; his mother and father in-law Maureen and Richard Celeste of Billerica, his grandmothers, Natividad Rodriguez and Darlene Fraser; his sister, Adrianna Rodriguez of Lowell; his cousin Miranda Landry; his sister-in-law, Melissa Celeste and Michael Costandi; his brother-in-law, Richard Celeste and Jessica Danehy; and countless aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends that became family.

Jimmy was the son of the late Kristie A. Fraser and nephew of the late Donald L. Fraser.
