

Ms. Jocelyn Kellie Coppola

December 18, 1988 - September 8, 2023

Jocelyn Kellie Coppola

Jocelyn Kellie Coppola, 34, passed away on September 8, 2023 at Lowell General Hospital, surrounded by her loving family.

Jocelyn was born in Lowell on December 18, 1988, a daughter of Phillip and Tammy (Lutkus) Coppola. She attended the Lowell Schools. Prior to her passing, Jocelyn was employed at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Boston.

Jocelyn was very creative, and could crochet, paint, or craft up anything you needed.

She was caring and always wanted to help people.

Jocelyn loved her children and her family. She loved her friends like family.

Jocelyn could be very goofy and funny. She was always trying to make others laugh. She loved to shop, do make up and style hair.

In addition to her mother and father, Jocelyn is survived by her four children, Alanna Carbonneau, Maston Coppola, Paislynn Coppola, and Kevin Davidson, Jr.; her siblings, Lindsay Logan and her husband Nick, Kaleigh Coppola, and Ryan Coppola and his wife Kassandra; her Nieces and Nephews, Nicholas Logan Jr. , Ellie Logan, Rylin Logan, Kayden Cruz, Jonathan Figueredo Jr.,

Avalise Coppola, and Atlas Coppola; her Aunts and Uncles,

Beverley McPhillips Pare and her husband Dennis,

Ronald Lutkus and his wife Mary, Gerald Lutkus and his wife Kristine, Gary Lutkus, Michael Lutkus, Cheryl Boyajian and her husband Charles, and Richard Coppola and his wife Michelle; and her God Parents, Andrew Kelley and Lorelei Judge.

She had many cousins and friends that she loved dearly.

Jocelyn was predeceased by her Grandparents, Alvin and Phyllis Lutkus, and Eleanor Kelley, and her Uncle and Aunt, Alvin Lutkus Jr. and his wife Theresa.

As her last act of kindness, Jocelyn gave the ultimate gift of Organ Donation. She ended up helping six people through organ donation.
