“ Our thoughts are with Joe's family. He was a dear, funny, devoted friend to our father, Arthur Giles, until his death, and a great support for Arthur and his wife Barbara. His faithfulness to and protectiveness of friends was admirable.

“ Joe took such good care of my mother in her later years always watching out for her and when my brother lost his leg, Joe drove him around and took him to doctors appointments always taking great care of Bob. He was a great friend and I'm sure he's with my brother Bob in heaven fishing. Rest in peace.

If Heaven involves helping others, fishing and being kind, my brother Joe is now happy. He was the baby of our family. May he wake up in the arms of a loving God. May Stairway to Heaven and Knocking on Heaven's Door be playing as he enters Heaven.

Dear jimmy, Joe wasn't only a great neighborhood friend. He was like a Brother to me, the same as you. I will Never forget the great fishing trips with Joe, going down the Concord River. Everytime I would see Joe outside across the street I would run over and hangout with him. I would say hey Joe would you like to go fishing? Joe would say with a smirk 😊 and laugh out loud., Do you have any worms I said not personally, but yes I have nightcrawlers in my Dad's refrigerator downstairs. I am so Blessed and grateful to have such a great friend, Joe will be Missed But never forgotten he will always be in my thoughts and prayers. The Billerica Avenue growing up was nothing but great, I will never forget the time when you , and Joe were walking with your classy looking Dad . And Joe said hey Chipper want to go to the Red Sox game, I said sure so we all walked down the Avenue to catch the train the great memories never end. Joe playing street hockey with us After getting a phone call from Richie, V. I just want to Thank Joe from the bottom of heart for all his great friendship. I received a text from jimmy, saying Joe was in the rehab in Lowell. I went to see Joe not too long after his Birthday. Joe looked good we had a lot of laughs. God Bless, Joe , jimmy, Dave, and Mike. Through these difficult times . Just think of Joe and A Big Smile will come through upon your face. Amen.
