“ To David, Cindy, Gloria, and Gill,
First let me say that i want to convey my heartfelt condolences to all of you for the loss of your mom. I had been thinking about all you guys recently and was especially sad about not keeping in touch. Joyce was always considered my second mom growing up and i will always remember her lovingly. I spent enough time at your house to know she loved you all very much and "bragged" about you every time i saw her over the years. Peace be with you all,

“ Love and prayers to Glo, Cindy and David. I cannot think about your mom without a smile on my face. It's funny, you never know what effects you have on kids, and your mom was extremely kind to me.

“ Thank you for being our "other" mother and always loving us, and being supportive. We have alot of wonderful memories at you and dads house. Especially with all our family sitting around the kitchen table for hours and hours at the holidays. Laughing, telling stories, having tea and crumpets. I will never forget those times and will cherish them forever.

We will miss you. You are now at peace and will have eternal happiness in heaven. Love you always, Kathy, Olyvia and Bella
