

Ms. Judith A. "Judi" Doyle

November 8, 1952 - October 2, 2015

Judith A. Doyle

Mother to many, Friend to all

Judith A. "Judi" (Dusablon) Doyle, 62, of Lowell, passed away unexpectedly on Friday morning, October 2, 2015 at Lowell General Hospital's Saints Campus. She was the beloved life partner of Sharon Ewan for the past 31 years.

Judith was born in Lowell on November 8, 1952, a daughter of the late Alfred J. Dusablon, Sr. and Marion (Desmarais) Dusablon. Judi was educated in Lowell Schools and was a graduate of Lowell High School. Throughout her professional career, Judi was the general manager of a company and was also active in Real Estate. For many years she was a volunteer at St. John's / Saints Memorial Hospital in Lowell. She was later employed as an information specialist at Saints.

Judi was a wonderful lady. She was a mother to many and a friend to all. Surviving Judi are her life partner, Sharon Ewan of Lowell; her son James A. Dusablon and his wife Kerry A. Dusablon of Lowell; seven grandchildren, Samantha, Matthew, Madison, Mason, Coty, Emily, and Chase; a sister, Elena Dusablon of Nashua, NH; a brother, Alfred Dusablon and his wife Maryann of Florida; and her nieces and nephew, Amanda Rivera, Nicole Flanagan, Thomas Gross, Joann Dusablon, and Tammy Gonzalez. Judi is also survived by many dear friends.

I have so many great memories of Judi since we became instant friends working together as young teens at the Merrimack Valley Nursing Home in 1970. Way too many to list here. Sharon, Jamie and family if you need anything, anything let me know.

“ Sharon, Jamie and Family,

It's so difficult to suffer the loss of someone so beautiful as Judi. To know great love leaves and great pain. I believe she will watch over you and keep you safe until the day you meet again. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Much love,

Rusty, Jamie, Jennifer, Cheri and Steven
