

Ms. Karen Ann Greenhalge

February 2, 1970 - August 17, 2016

KAREN A. GREENHALGE

Karen Ann Greenhalge, 46, passed away on August 17, 2016, at her home, following a struggle with diabetes. Karen was the beloved daughter of Gerald and Eleanor (Farrell) Greenhalge of Dracut, who survive her. Born in Lowell on February 2, 1970, Karen was educated in the Lowell Schools and attended Lowell High School. For many years, she worked as a cook for the Lowell School Department. Karen loved watching Boxing. She was also a Boston sports fan. She enjoyed being outside and laying in the sun. She had a great sense of humor and was always smiling. Karen was a sweetheart, a loving, caring person. She loved her kids and her grandkids very much. In addition to her parents Gerald and Eleanor, Karen is survived by her children, Christopher O'Brien, Christina O'Brien, and Christian O'Brien; her grandchildren, Kaylen O'Brien, Jordan O'Brien, and Jayden Maldonado; her sisters, Kelly Greenhalge and Kerry Greenhalge. Karen leaves many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins including Norma Martino and her late husband Mike, the late John Farrell, Jr., Aileen Olivera and her husband Jim, Pat Cobligh, Robert Greenhalge, the late Rose Greenhalge, Mary Libera, the late Rudy Libera, the late Alice Eklund, the late George Ward, the late Phyllis Lutkus, the late Al Lutkus, the late Albert Greenhalge, John Greenhalge, the Phyllis Greenhalge; and Joseph Brodie, Raymond Greenhalge, Timothy Greenhalge, and Crystal Perry. Karen also leaves her childhood best friend,

Julie Echenique.

Relatives and friends are invited to gather at ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH 282 Suffolk St. Lowell on SATURDAY from 10 until 10:45 AM to pay your respects to the family, followed by her FUNERAL MASS at 11 AM. I haven't thought about Karen in many many years. We knew each other briefly when we were 10-11. But this morning before I woke I had a dream about her and was compelled to look her up only to see her service announcement. Very sad. My thoughts and prayers are with her entire family. Know that I believe this dream means she is still around us and feeling much much better.
