OBITUARY

Kathleen A. Graham

Loving Mother, Grandmother, and Sister

LOWELL—Kathleen A. “Kathy” (Hickey) Graham, 69, a resident of Lowell, MA, passed away at her home on Thursday, November 14, 2019. Kathy was born on July 7, 1950 in Tewksbury, MA. She was a daughter of the late Francis and Elaine (Barron) Hickey. Kathy attended Tewksbury Schools and lived there until her late teens when she then moved to Lowell. It was on London Street where Kathy raised her family and had her happiest times. Her children and grandchildren meant everything to her. Kathy raised four children, Patrick, Michael, Daniel and Kristen. She made many memories with her children, Christmases topping the list. Kathy would “go crazy” celebrating. Special memories were also made in the summers spent in Loudon, NH at their Lake House. This tradition has been carried on with her grandchildren who spend lots of time there in all the seasons. A whole new generation to carry on the wonderful times spent there. As a Grandmother, Kathy was very involved and loving. She attended all of her grandchildren’s sporting events and supported their athletic hopes just as she had done for her own children. Cooking was another activity Kathy enjoyed and she loved preparing food for her family and for the holidays. Kathy shared a closeness with her siblings and loved spending time in Florida with her sisters. She was also a bird watcher and enjoyed time outdoors. For twenty years, she had a pet bird,

Rosie. She also had a beloved dog, Rusty. Kathy was a hard worker and took pride in her places of employment, Tewksbury Hospital, Teradyne, and the Pawtucket Memorial School in Lowell where she was in charge of the cafeteria.

Kathy is survived by her son Patrick Graham and his wife Haley of Hampton, NH, her son Daniel Graham and his wife, Rebecca, of Lowell, and her daughter Kristen Graham of Lowell; her grandchildren, Jaylin Ubri, Shea Graham, Jovani Ubri, Bryn Graham, Delaney Graham, Griffin Graham, and Nora Graham. Kathy's beloved son Michael passed away in 2000. Maurice "Butch" Mercier was Kathy's long-time companion and they are now reunited. She is also survived by her sister, Patricia Bradnick of Tewksbury and her sister, Mary Lou Labossiere and her husband Jack of Wilmington. She leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and cousins who will miss her dearly. Kathy was also the sister of the late Thomas Hickey and the late Robert Hickey.

“ It is with great sadness that I have learned of Kathy's passing. I grew to know Kathy as a bartender at my Mom's tavern - Joanne's Place. We grew to be friends in and outside of work. Kathy was kind, funny and a supportive friend to me during a difficult time in my life.

While I am also saddened to not have been able to attend Kathy's services, I have been cheered by the many fond memories of her. They are memories where I have found myself smiling and laughing over the last few days. I will miss her.

I wish peace and consolation to Kathy's family during this difficult time.

P.S. To this day ,even after all these years, there is never a time when I hear REM's "Losing my Religion" that I don't think of Kathy and Linda B. We always sang it with gusto!
