

Mrs. Kathleen C. Lauricella

April 17, 1921 - October 28, 2021

Tyngsborough—Kathleen C. Lauricella, age 100, passed away peacefully on October 28, 2021 at the Blaire House in Tewksbury.

Kathleen was the Wife of the late Samuel C. Lauricella to whom she was married for over 55 years.

She was also the sister of the late Richard Moore of Tyngsborough.

Born in Lowell on April 17, 1921, Kathleen was the only daughter of the late Peter and Mary (Ready) Moore. She was a graduate of the Sacred Heart Grammar School and Lowell High School. Kathleen excelled in math and was able to secure a position as a bookkeeper with a local retailer upon graduation. Subsequently, she met her future husband Sam soon after his discharge from the Army. They eventually moved to Buffalo, New York, where Sam had been appointed Executive Director of the Junior Achievement program. Kay and Sam happily and successfully made their home in Buffalo for many years.

Although, she and Sam did not have children, they were devoted pet owners and loved their beautiful Great Dane, aptly named, Dana. Upon retirement they moved to Tucson, Arizona, where they lived until Sam's death in July of 2000. Shortly after his death, Kathleen returned to Tyngsborough, Massachusetts to be near her brother, Richard Moore, and his family. Aunt Kay celebrated many joyous Holidays and summer vacations in Maine with her brother, his wife Rita, and their three daughters.

Kathleen Lauricella is survived by her three nieces, Shelagh Shaw of Hudson, NH, Eileen Lathrop and husband Len of Hudson, NH. and Noreen Moore of Nashua, NH. She is also survived by two grandnieces; Jennifer McComas and husband Michael of Hudson, NH, and Sarah Lathrop of Tampa FL., and a grandnephew, Adam Shaw and wife Lydia of Tyngsborough, MA., also seven great-grandnieces/nephews.
