

Mr. Lawrence "Larry" J. Paige

February 25, 1962 - June 24, 2012

OBITUARY

Lawrence J. "Larry" Paige

Loving Husband, Father, Grandfather, and Brother

LOWELL—Lawrence J. "Larry" Paige, 50, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, June 24, 2012 at the Boston Medical Center. He was the beloved husband of Risha Larae (Castle) Paige of Lowell. Larry was born in Woburn on February 25, 1962, a son of Lawrence and Irene (Rowe) (Paige) Barone. He moved to Lowell when he was about 9 years old and attended school there. He was a graduate of Lowell High School. For many years, Larry was employed in the painting and construction trade.

He was outgoing and funny, and could always make you laugh. He was a storyteller, which goes hand and hand with his personality. Larry was also a sensitive, caring soul. He enjoyed spending time with his family. In his free time, Larry enjoyed cooking. He loved to clean and always had a mop handy. Larry was an animal lover. Salisbury Beach was a favorite spot for him. He also lived there for about 10 years. After the beach Larry lived in Ohio for about 12 years.

Larry is survived by his wife, Risah; his daughters, Kathleen (Paige) Bard and her husband Richard, Nicole (Paige) Annaldo and her husband Steven; his son, Lawrence J. Paige, Jr.; his stepdaughter, Brooklynn Castle; two sisters, Donna Cappella and Jody Barone; three brothers, Robert Paige, Kevin Paige, and Timothy Barone; five grandchildren, Christian, Jenna, Alyssa, Marcus, and Chunk; his aunt, Joanie Rowe; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Larry was the brother of the late Charles H. Paige and Wayne Paige.

“ To my Favorite Uncle, best friend, this year was the best year of my life. All they laughs and time we shared together. You always tell me how much you loved me and that you want to take me up to ohio to see the rest of your family. All the time we worked on my car when i crashed it. Always telling me about your Chevy Monte Carlo. Me and you always went to the junk yard to pimp out my car. I always went to you for advice . Im glad you like the cake i bought you for your birthday. It made me happy to see that your were happy.

Love you much, your nephew, the chrisssto _____ Christian Paige

“ Larry and I had a few conversations when we were teens. The things we talked about....typical teen stuff...but he had a way of making me smile with his point of view. Larry, I'm sure there's a Hudson Park where ever you are now...with green grass and a cool breeze....and good conversation. Rest in peace my freind.

“ I wish i got to see him before he passed,but i was glad enough to talk to him.It was always funny when he said my name i can still hear him.I loved being at their house when i was a kid i always wanted sister's ,so taking care of the girls and little Larry felt like i had a big family.Uncle Larry showed me alot about cooking making canned fried potatoes and onions with every meal it was cheap and filled everyone up..lol..Anytime i wanted to visit and stay a week or two all i had to do was call.I remember this one time him and pigpen was on the roof and uncle Larry had a bee bee gun,and i noticed he was shooting birds til he saw me he got me right between the eyes,my dad was so mad he got on the roof and hung him upside down til he said sorry.It was funny really Uncle Larry didnt mean it he was messing around,and when i got older that was his ha ha on me.I know when i talked to him last he was in pain i hope he's free now with all the other loved ones we have lost.Love and will miss you...
