Loving Daughter, Mother, Sister, Aunt, and Friend

Louise (Grenier) Deloge passed away on Tuesday, November 18, 2014 in Derry, NH. She was born in Lowell on May 22, 1957, one of 7 children born to Gerard and Joanne (Poisson) Grenier. Louise was educated in Lowell schools and was a graduate of both St. Joseph's Grammar School and High School in Lowell before beginning her career. She was the owner/operator of Stanley's Bird Creations of Pelham, NH. where she manufactured toys for birds. Previously, she had worked as a manufacturer in Lowell factories. She was a hard worker and completed all tasks at hand with 100% effort. To know Louise was to know her deep love of animals. Her dogs Sadie and Spero meant the world to her as did her beloved birds. She opened her home to stray animals, even wild ones, that were in need of help and TLC. She also volunteered at a local Veterinarian's office. Louise was also passionate about sewing and crocheting. She was very skilled and enjoyed making hats, mittens, and sweaters for family and friends. She was a very crafty seamstress and could fix any article of clothing that needed it. Louise was a kind and friendly person who had the gift of making friends wherever she went. She will be missed by all who knew her and her generous and gentle spirit. In addition to her mother Joanne Grenier, Louise is survived by her two sons, Shawn McKinnon of Pelham, NH and Steven McKinnon of Arizona; a granddaughter, Rayne McKinnon of Arizona; her brothers and sisters, Suzanne Noel and her husband Norm of Lowell, Gerard Grenier, Jr. of Hudson, NH, Donald Grenier and his wife Sandra of N. “ Shaun, I found out from someone in NH that your mother had passed, guess she is flying with the birds now. She was a wonderful, kind and caring person, I enjoyed doing business with her over the years. If you ever decide to do the toys again, let me know. Again, I'm so sorry. “ My deepest sorrow goes out to Sean and the entire Grenier family. What I remember most about Louise is, when she wasn't talking, she was always smiling and laughing. She was so full of life, she lite up any room she walked in. She was someone that enjoyed life to the fullest. She was a great person. May your fond memories of Louise help you through this sad time.
