

Luz "Picky" Alicea

April 1, 1970 - May 26, 2013

OBITUARY

Luz "Picky" Alicea

Loving Mother, Sister, Friend

Luz E. "Picky" Alicea, 43, a resident of the Centralville neighborhood, passed away on Sunday, May 26, 2013 at Lowell General Hospital. Luz was the wife of Carlos Alicea of Lowell who survives her.

Luz was born in Comerio, Puerto Rico on April 1, 1970, a daughter of Angel Rosario of Puerto Rico and Idalia Bonilla of Lowell who both survive her. She came to the United States in 1973 and was educated in the Lowell Schools. Prior to her illness, Luz had worked as a housekeeper in the hospitality industry and later as a home child care provider.

Luz was a very funny, friendly, and outgoing woman. She loved reading and writing, knitting and singing. She had a beautiful voice and loved Gospel Music. Luz was a great Mom and she loved her six children very much.

Luz will be deeply missed and never forgotten by her entire family and her many friends.

In addition to her mother, father, and husband, Luz is survived by her six children, Emanuel Felix of Puerto Rico, Carlos Tamayo of Bedford, Eneida Tamayo of Bedford, Rebecca Alicea of Lowell, and twins Faith Alicea and Hope Alicea both of Lowell; two sisters Olga Alicea and Myra Rosario both of Lowell; three brothers, Raul Carmona of Tewksbury, Angel Rosario of Deltona, FL, and Ramon Rosario of Lowell; also many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Luz also left her puppy, "Lucky".

“ My condolences to the family...I just heard of Luz passing and it really made me sad especially cause I heard of it so late and could not go pay my respect to the family.
May you rest in peace my long lost friend I will always remember you. May the lord be with your family god bless them all...
