

Ms. Mary Jane Creegan

September 22, 1947 - July 5, 2019

Mary Jane Creegan
Educator & Principal

Lowell – Mary Jane Creegan, 71, a life-long resident of Lowell, passed away on July 5, 2019 at Brigham And Women’s Hospital.

Mary Jane was born on September 22, 1947 at St. John’s Hospital in Lowell. She was the daughter of the late Leo M. and Theresa (McKeon) Creegan. She is survived by her spouse, Pamela Bryan; her brother, Leo Creegan, and his wife, Judy; her niece Elizabeth Mc DeVitt and her husband Andrew; her niece Stephanie Creegan and her husband Robert Fardin; her nephew Leo Richard Creegan and his wife Noelle; her niece Danielle Rodriguez and her husband Paul; her niece Christina Arrabito; her nephew Bryan Tutler; her nephew Stephen Tutler and his wife Melissa; her nephew James Arrabito and his wife Casey Omara and many adoring great-nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her devoted aunt, Elizabeth (Bea) McKeon, and her niece, Colleen Creegan.

Mary Jane received her Master’s in Education from the University of Lowell and enjoyed a 35-year career in the Lowell Public Schools, where she became a much beloved principal of the Margaret Brady and Abraham Lincoln Schools. In addition to her tireless support of children, she was a vocal advocate of women’s issues, serving on the boards of Rape Crisis and House of Hope. She was also the founder of an informal social group of the Women’s Principals Association in Lowell.

An avid golfer, she was an original full-time female member at Mt. Pleasant Golf Club, where she was a three-time Women’s club champ. She loved tap dancing, and spending time with her family and countless friends. And with much warmth, she was grateful to Dr. David P. Steensma and the staff of Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and Brigham And Women’s Hospital for their wonderful care.

“ I had the good fortune to work for Mary Jane at the Lincoln School. She had a unique ability to inspire her teachers, always keeping the focus on the kids, and always with that MJ sense of humor.
When she retired she sent a letter to staff and quoted Tina Turner's "Proud Mary".
"YOU ARE THE BEST, SIMPLY THE BEST, BETTER THAN ALL THE REST"
Right back at you Mary Jane!
Your legacy lives on in all of the lives you have touched.
