Mary R. Kirwin

Lifelong Lowell Resident, St. Margaret's Parishioner

Mary R. Kirwin, RN 'Pete' 88, a lifelong resident of Lowell, passed away on Sunday, December 30, 2012 at the Wingate of Belvidere Nursing Home. Born in Lowell, Mary was the daughter of the late John and Rose Mary (Marquis) Ginivan. Mary was the wife of Kenneth W. Kirwin, Sr. who died in 1977. Mary graduated from St. John's Hospital Nursing Program and worked in the hospital for several years until her twins were born. At that time, Mary stopped working outside the home and focused her life on her faith, family and friends. Mary is survived by her six children, Maureen K. Dewey and her husband Dave, Kenneth W. Kirwin, Jr. and his wife Dorothy, Daniel G. Kirwin, Eileen M. Kirwin, Thomas P. Kirwin and his wife Heather, and Joseph F. Kirwin. She leaves her five grandchildren, Lisa, Kevin, Twilah, Ryan and Hannah who were all the love of her life. She also leaves her sister-in-law Rita Kirwin and two brothers-in-law, Paul Carr and Fr. George Kirwin, OMI, and many nieces and nephews.

Mary was predeceased by her sister Margaret Richards and her husband Paul, and her brothers Robert Ginivan and his wife Cassie, Fr. Francis Ginivan, John Ginivan and William Ginivan. She was also predeceased by her sister-in-law Connie Carr and brother-in-law Gerald Kirwin.

Mary was a member of St. Margaret's Blessed Virgin Sodality and the Catholic

Nurses Association.

Rest in Peace, Mary. I remember Mary very well as I lived next door from 1966 through 1970, downstairs from Rita Dudevoir. She was always helpful and kind. I can see her in the pantry working and chatting with me as I took a few minutes sitting on the back steps. Such nice memories of a wonderful woman. I as so sorry for your loss. In deepest sympathy, Dianne (Hylan) Heeley
