Matilde Rosario

Loving Mother, Grandmother, and Great Grandmother

Matilde Rosario, 65, a resident of Market Mills, passed away unexpectedly on January 15, 2014 at her home. Born in Vega Baja, Puerto Rico on January 26, 1948, she was the daughter of Faustino Rosario and Rosa Hernandez. Matilde has been a Lowell resident for the past 31 years. She was employed as a cook and kitchen worker at the Dubliner Restaurant on Market Street in Lowell.

Matilde was a hard worker. She loved to shop and she loved to clean. She was a good cook and enjoyed cooking. Most of all, Matilde enjoyed spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren.

Matilde is survived by her children, Carmen Vazquez of Puerto Rico, Rosa Molina of Lowell, Hector Olvio of Lowell, Melissa Irizarry of Lowell, and Francisco Irizarry, also of Lowell; one brother and her sisters living in Puerto Rico; 22 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. Matilde was the mother of the late Victor M. Rosario who died in 2007.

“ I remember when I was little my dad said not to touch the coil burner. I did anyways and burnt my fingers. Matilde stayed up with me that night. Also, when I needed a place to stay she opened her home to me and my husband. I will remember her for her kindness to me and my sisters. Although, we were her stepchildren she took care of us as her own.
